SETTLEMENT SERVICE

Building better communities

Have you or your family recently migrated to Australia?

- Are you experiencing language problems?
- Do you feel lonely and isolated?
- Do you need help getting a job in Australia?
- Would you like to know about childcare?
- Is someone in your family experiencing stress?
- Do you know about services in Australia such as housing, education, health or Centrelink?

Come and speak to one of our workers.

We may be able to help you.

The MCC Settlement Service assists migrants during the early settlement period. The service is funded by the Department of Immigration and Citizenship.

Settlement Service

This service helps newly arrived migrants and refugees during their first five years of settlement with:

Orientation to Australia

We help migrants and refugees to participate in Australian society and lifestyle.

Community development

We encourage migrants and refugees to develop a sense of identity, and belonging, within the local and broader Australian community.

Casework

We assist migrants and refugees on a one-to-one basis. We help them identify their settlement needs, and provide support and referral to appropriate services.

Referral

Support is available to help you access services such as:

- Centrelink
- STARTTS
- Department of Health
- Department of Housing
- Department of Education & Training
- Department of Community Services
- Employment Services

Information sessions

We organise sessions on a range of issues such as:

- Legal matters
- Housing
- Employment
- Family and relationships
- Life skills
- Health
- Migration

Advocacy

Manly Community Centre empowers, and supports, migrants and refugees to understand their rights and responsibilities through cross-cultural education.

We can also advocate on your behalf to other services.
